

Kos International Convention Centre (KICC)

On the beautiful island of Kos, birthplace of Hippocrates – father of Medicine – next to Kipriotis Hotels (5 luxury properties – 1,450 rooms total capacity) and along the azure Aegean coastline stands Kos International Convention Centre (KICC)

With 40 meeting rooms of 7,000 people total capacity (5,500 KICC and 1,500 Iberostar Kipriotis Panorama Hotel), main auditorium 2,300 seats and 3,000m<sup>2</sup> of exhibition space, Kos International Convention Centre is the largest autonomous, purpose-built, multi-functional Convention Centre in Greece.

The globally known Kos International Convention Centre is an impressive 3 level modern building, situated directly adjacent to Kipriotis Village Resort - the biggest hotel of the group- and only a breath away from the remaining 4 Kipriotis Hotels. KICC is one of the most luxurious Convention Centres offering the latest in meeting technology. High standard materials, modern ideas and excellent space design were adopted and applied in order to achieve maximum comfort, prestige and splendour that will make your meeting, conference or convention special!

With excellent infrastructure, designed and built with the conference market needs in mind, Kos International Convention Centre (KICC) offers state of the art conference facilities and is justifiably placed on the top of the list as one of the best Convention Centres in the Mediterranean.

More specifically Kos International Convention Centre (KICC):

- Is the only Convention Centre that can host in the same building and operate at the same time – in parallel – 25 meeting rooms
- Is the only Convention Centre with completely autonomous catering facilities that can cater for more than 1,000 people
- Is the only Convention Centre supported by accommodation facilities of 1,450 guestrooms next to it.

As one of the most important Convention Centres in Greece and Abroad, with state of the art infrastructure and a number of years of experience in the organization and execution of multiple, highly important Meetings and Conferences, we don't only promise but guarantee the success of any event that really wants to make a difference!